

HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY

In our daily work, we follow the human rights protection code, which is based on basic human rights, which are:

- ✓ Management ensures fair employment conditions to all potential employees,
- ✓ None of the employees may force and may not be forced to do any work that would cause them to suffer physically or mentally,
- ✓ All employees freely, peacefully and legally establish and join associations and have the right to collective bargaining with the employer,
- ✓ We do not allow the employment of children,
- ✓ No one may be discriminated against because of their race, skin colour, sex,
- ✓ sexual orientation, marital status, pregnancy, parentage, religion, political belief, nationality, ethical beliefs, social origin, social status, disability, age or trade union membership,
- ✓ All employees have the right to a safe workplace and healthy working conditions,
- ✓ Every employee is entitled to fair payment for work performed

Janez GNAMUŠ

direktor

Dobja Vas, 10.01.2022